God Is For Us

REMEMBERING WHO STANDS WITH US

> "The Lord is on my side; I will not fear. What can man do to me?"
>
> PSALM 118:6

SCRIPTURE READING:
PSALM 118:5–9; ROMANS 8:31–39

REMEMBER WHO IS FOR YOU

If only we could remember this truth in every difficult moment: God is for us. We want to believe it. We try to hold on to it. Yet when life becomes overwhelming, when circumstances seem uncertain, or when the words and actions of others leave us afraid, it is easy to lose sight of the One in whom our hope rests. We become so focused on what stands against us that we forget who stands with us.

But Scripture reminds us who our God is.

- The Maker of heaven and earth is for us (Psalm 146:6).
- The King of glory, mighty and strong, is for us (Psalm 24:8).
- The great King above all gods is for us (Psalm 95:3).
- Our compassionate Lord is for us (Psalm 116:5).
- The Healer is for us (Psalm 147:3).
- Our unchanging Father is for us (James 1:17).
- The Promise Keeper is for us (2 Peter 3:9).
- And above all, He has shown His love for us through Jesus Christ.

In Romans 8:31, Paul asks a powerful question: "If God is for us, who can be against us?" Paul does not suggest that believers will never face opposition, suffering or hardship. In fact, he goes on to speak about trouble, persecution, danger and even death. His assurance is far greater than a promise of an easy life.

Through Jesus Christ, God has acted decisively for our salvation. Because of His love and faithfulness, no suffering, opposition or earthly circumstance can separate those who belong to Christ from the love of God (Romans 8:38–39).

Our confidence is not that nothing difficult will happen, but that nothing can separate us from God's love in Christ Jesus.

That is why what we fill our hearts and minds with each day matters. When we spend time in God's Word, we learn to recognise His truth. When we worship Him, our focus is lifted beyond our circumstances to His greatness. And when we walk alongside fellow believers, we find encouragement to remain faithful through life's challenges.

Fear may still come. Difficult days may still lie ahead. But fear does not have to determine where we place our trust. Today, whatever stands before you, remember: The One who holds your future is the One who has already demonstrated His love for you in Jesus Christ.

OTHER SCRIPTURE VERSES

PSALM 146:6
He is the Maker of heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them.

PSALM 24:8
Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

PSALM 95:3
For the Lord is a great God, the great King above all gods.

PSALM 116:5
The Lord is gracious and righteous; our God is full of compassion.

PSALM 147:3
He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

JAMES 1:17
Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.

2 PETER 3:9
The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. Instead he is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

ROMANS 8:31
If God is for us, who can be against us?

ROMANS 8:38–39
For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

TAKE A MOMENT TO REFLECT

What circumstances or fears have caused you to lose sight of God's faithfulness, and how does Romans 8:31–39 reshape your perspective?

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, thank You that Your love and faithfulness do not change with my circumstances. When fear overwhelms me and uncertainty fills my thoughts, remind me of who You are. Help me to fill my heart with the truth of Your Word, to trust Your promises and to rest in the assurance of Your love through Jesus Christ. Give me courage to face each day, knowing that nothing can separate me from Your love. In Jesus' name, Amen.